Amy

The days will come and go
The years too before you know
Wait for love
To come to you
Your whole life will be through

What's the use of talking, walking alone?
All alone
In your busy lonely days
Lets find the time for love

Take the time for
A gentle cup of tea
Take the time out for
Sunsets down by the sea
Take a little nap
'neath a shady tree
You just might find the time for love

Amy,
What are you waiting for?
See what life has in store
With the boy at your door
Here for you evermore

What's the use of talking, walking alone?
All alone
In your busy lonely days
Let's find the time for love

Let's find the time for love
Take the time for
A gentle cup of tea
Take the time out for
Sunsets down by the sea
Take a little nap 'neath a shady tree
You just might find the time for love

What's the use of talking, walking alone?
All alone
In your busy lonely days
Let's find the time for love

Take the time for
A gentle cup of tea
Take the time out for
Sunsets down by the sea
Take a little nap
'neath a shady tree
You just might find the time for love

Take the time for
A gentle cup of tea
Take the time out for
'neath a shady tree
