Garden Of Love

Music:Ryo Matsuda

Lyrics:George Cockle

Unto you
As the darkness hides my face
Like an angel's fall from grace
To never die
In my heart
As every beat just coincides
With every pain that's kept inside
And never dies

And just to tell myself
I will fill your needs
Love that no-one could deliver
Who you wanna be
Arms in your night
Pleasures you never once beheld

Softening my step I enter
Tremble in your heart, I feel it
Entering your Garden Of Love
Softening my step I enter
Tremble in your heart, you're waiting
Entering your Garden Of Love

I your eyes
Your every dream not yet fulfilled
I'll be cast where love is stilled
Forevermore
To a place
Where every song that's played remains
And where the heart's compassion reigns
Forevermore

An just to tell myself
I will fill your needs
Love that no-one could deliver
Who you wanna be
Arms in your night
Pleasures you never once beheld

Softening my step I enter
Tremble in your heart, I feel it
Entering your Garden Of Love
Softening my step I enter
Tremble in your heart, you're waiting
Entering your Garden Of Love

Who you wanna be
Arms in your night
Pleasures you never once beheld

Softening my step I enter
Tremble in your heart, I feel it
Entering your Garden Of Love
Softening my step I enter
