Love Life

Music: Yasuhiro Yamauchi

Lyrics: George Cockle

When the sun goes down
You know that I think of you
When I hit the town
With a friend or two
They think I'm a clown
They know that I pine for you
Every day
Every night
All of the time

To night
See the moon has come out once again
A sight
That we both saw long ago
Quite right
You had every reason to be gone
I can't seem to remember those nights
Love Life
Solitary

Every night
I feel my world start to go
Spinning round and round
Every night
I want to fall asleep and dream of you
I take a flight
Within magic world and
I will find my way
My life today
Seems so far away from yesterday

You won't see me cry
That is in the past for me
When we said goodbye
I just did not see
Can't forget those nights
When you did belong to me
Every day
Every night
All of the time

So kind
I have just now come to realize
To find
I am the one to sow regrets
My mind
Tells me there will be a brighter day
I can't seem to remember those nights
Love Life
Solitary

Every night
I feel my world start to go
Every night
I want to fall asleep and dream of you
I take a flight
Within magic world and
I will find my way
My life today

Every night
I feel my world start to go
Every night
I want to fall asleep and dream of you
I take a flight
Within magic world and
I will find my way
My life today
Seems so far away from yesterday

Every night
I feel my world start to go
Spinning round and round
Every night
I want to fall asleep and dream of you
I take a flight
Within magic world and
I will find my way
My life today
Seems so far away from yesterday
