Yesterday's Rain

Music:Mitsuo Yanagi

Lyrics:George Cockle

Season's change too soon
Flowers no longer bloom
When winter rains have come and gone
Then the world will start anew

See the earth and sky
Same as you and I
We all look forward to the rain
Tears of joy that nature cries

Remember all the days you had
Waited for clouds to clear away
Those rainy days still comes to you
So long ago

Don't shed tears for yesterday's rain
Never fear a new day is dawning
See this sunny day
It's your brand new day
It'll clear away
Take fear away
You'll find your way

Don't shed tears for yesterday's rain
Never fear a new day is dawning
See this sunny day
It's your brand new day
Just go out and find your way

Dry your teary eyes
Time you realize
That rainy days are helping hands
Just precious gifts from the skies

Remember all the days you had
Waited for clouds to clear away
Those rainy days still calls to you
So long ago

Don't shed tears for yesterday's rain
Never fear a new day is dawning
See this sunny day
It's your brand new day
It'll clear away
Take fear away
You'll find your way

Don't shed tears for yesterday's rain
Never fear a new day in dawning
See this sunny day
It's your brand new day
Just go out and find your way

See this sunny day
Find your way
